ABOUT ME

- Teamwork, discipline and organization are the three things that have helped me face the difficulties in life.
- As my studies are coming to an end, I have created several applications in several programming languages, both alone and with other people.
- Working with other people on assignments I have learned many lessons, and the key to the success of the team is respect and trust between members.
- Working alone helped me understand that no matter how many times you fail at something, if you do not give up, you will be able to reach your ultimate goal.

I am young with huge motivation seeking for new challenges in software development.
